

everything strapped securely. Throughout the afternoon they checked on my comfort and well being. There was no waste of time all day but every attention was paid to detail in seeing everything was safe and secure.

The trip to Kennesaw was accomplished safely and the unloading, unpacking and set up followed the same stringent procedures with me being queried on where every item went. Again each of my “treasures arrived in perfect condition”, being positioned in just the right place. At the end of the day all was well. I was so impressed by their congeniality, dedication, and most of all friendship. I have never seen a relocation made with such ease.

Please pass along to Harris, Dexter, Keena, and Juanita my appreciation for all they did for me. Each are certainly worth their weight in gold to you, your company and the clients you serve. I daily pray for your safety, well being and continued success. If I may ever serve as a reference for your company or employees please do not hesitate to contact me. It would be my pleasure. May God bestow his richest blessings on each of you as you go about serving others.

Sincerely, I remain:
